What you get

Paid travel and housing. When you accept an assignment with CompHealth, we pay for and arrange all of your travel and housing needs. You'll receive full service from our travel and housing department to:

- Schedule and book your air travel
- Provide private, fully furnished housing near your worksite
- Arrange for a rental car or other local transportation

Licensing services. We coordinate and pay for your license in each state where you accept an assignment. You'll benefit from a streamlined process to navigate each state's rules and requirements and our relationships with state licensing boards.

Quality improvement/risk management support. You'll receive outstanding support while on a locums assignment. Our dedicated QM staff adheres to the standards and policies that promote the delivery of safe patient care, including those set by The Joint Commission and NCQA. A multispecialty Medical Advisory Board assesses credentialing information and assists in the evaluation of clinical incidents.

Paid malpractice insurance. You receive comprehensive malpractice insurance and a policy that covers you even after your assignment ends. We work with a top provider, rated A (Excellent) with AM Best, an admitted carrier in all 50 states. You can have peace of mind that you are fully covered on every assignment.

CompHealth locum tenens frequently asked questions: the answers to your needs

- Q. Why should I choose CompHealth?
- A. Take advantage of CompHealth's size and strength in the market to find the jobs you want. We were the first company in the United States to establish locum tenens, for physicians in all specialties. We have the largest client network, nationwide. Choose from many jobs that are never posted and are hard to find on your own. Your personal recruiter — a dedicated staffing expert in your specialty — will represent you and your abilities to potential employers.
- Q. What can locum tenens offer me?
- A. Locum tenens lets you decide where, when, and how often you practice medicine. You can choose the job opportunities that fit your immediate and long-term needs. No matter where you are in your medical career — graduating resident, fellow, mid-career, semiretired — we can provide locum tenens assignments that allow you to focus on patient care.
- Q. Where will I work?
- A. You can choose jobs in your specialty, nationwide, in a wide variety of practice settings and geographic locations. Discover collegial work environments that are just the right fit for you.
- Q. How much money will I make?
- A. CompHealth offers very competitive compensation packages that vary depending on your specialty and the job location, similar to what you experience with a permanent position. In many instances, the net compensation for working locums is better than a permanent position, when you add up wages, paid malpractice insurance, paid licensure, housing, and transportation. Plus, it's overhead-free income. And you are paid weekly via direct deposit or check guarantee.
