

East
View
Press

2021
Catalog

Bringing Critical Eurasian Perspectives to Light

www.eastviewpress.com

ABOUT EAST VIEW PRESS

East View Press is the journal and book publishing division of East View Information Services and its related company, East View Geospatial. We currently produce six periodicals geared toward serving researchers and others interested in major international and public policy questions, especially as they relate to the geographic areas of China, the Far East and the former Soviet Union. East View Press also publishes carefully selected books dealing with international politics, Slavic and Sino studies, military affairs and history, and geography and mapping.

Regardless of format, East View Press has the mission of adding special value (usually by translation into English) to authoritative source materials in order to make them available to the widest possible audience globally.

East View Press has a new website!

Visit the new and improved www.eastviewpress.com to:

- Find information on all our journals and books
- Purchase books in print, online or e-book format
- Request exam or review copies of our publications
- Purchase journal subscriptions in print, online or print+online format
- Browse an ever-growing library of free articles from our journals
- Connect to East View On Demand, a new service that allows users to browse, search and purchase millions of articles from the digital archives of East View Press publications and other East View resources

The East View Companies

Since 1989, East View has uncovered and distributed an amazing collection of key vernacular-language materials from countries all over the world. These publications are available by subscription and pay-per-view to scholars and students all over the world. But since most of these materials are inaccessible to end-users who do not read the original languages, the responsibility of East View Press is to selectively bring forward, reformat, translate and publish them in English. Our strongest motivation is to provide vital information to researchers and analysts in the international and public policy fields.

10601 Wayzata Blvd • Minneapolis, MN 55305 USA
Phone: +1.952.252.1201 • Fax: +1.952.252.1202
www.eastviewpress.com • press@eastview.com

East View Press

@EastViewPress

The Current Digest of the Chinese Press An English-language collection of news coming out of China

Each week, The Current Digest of the Chinese Press presents a digestible collection of articles from key Chinese news sources on such topics as politics, international relations, security, economics, business, public health, environment, education, culture and more – all in English.

The rise of China is one of the compelling stories of our time. Yet it can be difficult for a person with an abiding interest in China to get a broad-survey, comprehensive understanding of current events as reported by mass media in the People's Republic of China, especially if he or she lacks Chinese-language fluency.

The Current Digest of the Chinese Press removes such obstacles, offering readers, regardless of Chinese language ability, a much clearer (if more complex) view of the current Chinese reality.

ISSN 2162-2566 (online)

Weekly, in English

Online $1,362

Far Eastern Affairs

A Russian journal on China, Japan and the Asia-Pacific region

Far Eastern Affairs is a quarterly journal of the Institute for Far Eastern Studies at the Russian Academy of Sciences. The journal provides in-depth discussion of Russia's relations with China, Japan, North and South Korea, as well as other countries of the Asia-Pacific region. Russia's relations with this region, and with China in particular, are key to understanding the shifting balance of power in today's world. Far Eastern Affairs is an excellent resource for gaining insight into this region and Russia's role there. It is also the only scholarly Russian journal available in English on this region.

ISSN 0206-149X (print)

ISSN 1947-2641 (online)

Quarterly, in English

Print $624

Online $573

Print+Online $668

The Current Digest of the Russian Press

A weekly selection of translated articles from major Russian newspapers

Published since 1949, The Current Digest of the Russian Press is a leading publication in the field of Soviet/Russian area studies. Each week, it presents a selection of Russian-language press materials, carefully translated into English. Intended for use in teaching and research, the translations are thus presented as documentary materials without elaboration or commentary, and state the opinions and views of the original authors, not the publishers of the journal.

With clearly delineated subject headings, CDRP covers such key topics as economics, politics and political reform, foreign policy, international affairs, legal reform, public health, and other social, cultural and legal issues.

ISSN 2159-3612 (print)

ISSN 2159-3639 (online)

Weekly, in English

Print $2,974

Online $2,888

Print+Online $3,218

International Affairs

A Russian journal of world politics, diplomacy and international relations

Offering unique, first-hand analysis of major foreign policy and security issues facing Russia and other former Soviet republics, this world-renowned journal is the English translation of the Russian-language journal Mezhdunarodnaia zhizn (www.interaffairs.ru), which is published by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation. The editorial board of this journal is traditionally headed by the minister himself, while the journal's contributors are primarily experienced, high-ranking diplomats. As such, International Affairs is an excellent primary source for anyone interested in the course of Russian policy in foreign affairs.

ISSN 0130-9641 (print)

ISSN 1938-2588 (online)

Bimonthly, in English

Print $1,025

Online $963

Print+Online $1,103

Social Sciences

A quarterly journal of the Russian Academy of Sciences

Social Sciences presents the most prominent papers and studies appearing in more than 30 journals of the Russian Academy of Sciences. Covering the most pressing issues of Russia's social and economic development, Social Sciences includes articles on philosophy, history, economics, politics, sociology, law, philology, psychology, ethnography, archeology, literature and culture.

ISSN 0134-5486 (print)

ISSN 1938-2553 (online)

Quarterly, in English

Print $767

Online $722

Print+Online $811

Military Thought

A Russian journal of military theory and strategy

The elite military journal known in Russia as Voennaia mysl' was founded in 1918 and has been classified for nearly 70 years. Since 1992, East View has published the English translation of this journal as Military Thought. A unique source of information on the development of Russian military theory, Military Thought offers articles on Russian military reform, tactics and strategy of modern combat, and counterterrorist and security operations.

As an organ of the Russian Defense Ministry, the journal's contributors are top military personnel and leading lecturers from Russian military universities and colleges. Military Thought publishes studies on the experience of modern war (especially local wars and armed conflicts), and includes pieces devoted to the methodology of military science, art and development, as well as pertinent developments in the natural sciences and engineering. Special attention is paid to the operational training of the army, the moral and psychological training of military personnel, and the education and legal support of the Russian military establishment.

ISSN 0869-5636 (print)

ISSN 1938-257X (online)

Quarterly, in English

Print $1,510

Online $1,451

Print+Online $1,655

Universal Database of East View Press Publications

The Universal Database of East View Press Publications (UDB-EVP) contains eight English language journals published and/or available exclusively through East View Press. The database focuses on the geographic region of China, Russia and the former Soviet Union. Topics covered in the database include domestic politics, international relations, foreign policy, economics, military affairs, business and commerce, public health, the environment, social sciences, archaeology, art, culture, geography, sustainability, and more.

UDB-EVP includes the titles: Chinese Cultural Relics; The Current Digest of the Chinese Press; The Current Digest of the Russian Press; Far Eastern Affairs; Geography, Environment, Sustainability; International Affairs; Military Thought; and Social Sciences. The database puts a wealth of information about this dynamic region at your fingertips, and all conveniently in English. Order this collection and save over $1,500 the rate of purchasing the individual titles. The database also comes loaded with back issues of each title (2010-current) at no extra charge provided a current subscription is maintained.

Contact press@eastview.com to subscribe or to arrange a free 30-day trial to the Universal Database of East View Press Publications.

Looking for more from East View Press?

Individual articles and back issues of all East View Press journal titles are available for purchase through our EVXpress Document Delivery Service. Visit www.eastview.com/services/evxpress to get started.

East View Press Journal Archives

East View Press offers online archives of all of its journal titles. Our current archive holdings include:

The Current Digest of the Chinese Press: 2011-current

The Current Digest of the Russian Press: 1949-current

Far Eastern Affairs: 2000-current

International Affairs: 1955-current

Military Thought: 1990-current

Social Sciences: 1998-current

Chinese Cultural Relics: 2014-2018

Edited by Fyodor Lukyanov

ISBN 978-1-879944-75-6 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-73-2 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-70-1 (e-book)

Paperback, 2019, 382 pp, English

P $49.95 | O $199.95 | E $39.95

Russia and the Middle East Viewpoints, Policies, Strategies

This collection of articles and essays paints a compelling portrait of Russia's Middle East vision and its development over the last two decades. Carefully selected by Fyodor Lukyanov, editor in chief of the acclaimed journal Russia in Global Affairs, many of these pieces are written by officials who played a direct part in crafting Russian policy in this dynamic region: from the late Yevgeny Primakov, prime minister under both Yeltsin and Putin; to longtime Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov, UN adviser Vladimir Orlov, and Energy Minister Aleksandr Novak.

Russia and the Middle East also features contributions from reputable scholars on a range of topics that include regional conflicts, the Arab Spring, terrorism, Islamic doctrine, demographic trends and much more. The collection closes with a prescient article that contemplates the geopolitical effects of a US withdrawal from Syria.

These experts, diplomats and state leaders address other relevant questions such as:

- Why did Russia choose Syria as the place to reassert itself as a superpower?
- How do Russia's geopolitical interests in the Middle East coincide and conflict with those of the West?
- What repercussions has the Arab Spring had on the region and the world as a whole?
- How can the global community address the problem of terrorism?
- What economic opportunities does this region offer?

The issues examined in this collection will engage a wide audience of researchers, students and policymakers who have even peripheral interest in the Middle East, the Muslim, and Russian geopolitical perspectives.

“As Putin’s Russia ended its retreat from Great Power politics and challenged the dominance of the US in the Middle East, pundits in the West have struggled to understand Moscow’s motives... This is the place to start to sort through the confusions that have obscured understanding of the stakes for Russia and the US in that vital region.”

– Ronald Grigor Suny, William H. Sewell Jr. Distinguished University Professor of History, The University of Michigan

“A rewarding and revealing collection of essays from Russia’s most authoritative commentators outlining Russian views on the Middle East, contemporary warfare and international affairs since 2005. Anyone wishing to understand Russia’s activities in the contemporary Middle East and its outlook on the region and international affairs needs to read this.”

– Stephen Blank, American Foreign Policy Council, Co-author, Russia in the Middle East (Jamestown, 2018)

By Huang Suping

Translated by Chen Fuyu

ISBN 978-1879944-77-0

Paperback, 2018

408 pages, in English

$39.95

High-Speed Rail Networks and Population Mobility Management in China

China's high-speed rail networks have been world-renowned for their cutting-edge technology, efficiency and unparalleled ability to move large numbers of people over long distances. Co-published by East View Press and Social Sciences Academic Press, High-Speed Rail Networks and Population Mobility Management in China describes in great detail how high-speed rail has changed the way the Chinese live and work, as well as how cities in the country have grown and developed. Written by one of China's preeminent sociologists, this book is a must-read for anyone wanting to understand the potential of high-speed rail networks and their effects on the world.

About the Contributors

Author Huang Suping is a lecturer at the School of Sociology and Political Science of Shanghai University. She holds a Ph.D. in Management Science and Engineering and a Post-doc in Public Management. Her research interests include population economics, regional development, employment and social politics. Huang has published in journals such as Population and Economy, Urban Planning Forum, and Canadian Social Sciences.

Translator Chen Fuyu is an Associate Professor at the School of Foreign Languages at Chongqing Jiaotong University. He holds a MA in Interpreting and Translation Studies.

Edited by Laurence Bogoslaw

Foreword by Mark Galeotti

ISBN 978-1879944-89-3 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-88-6 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-78-7 (e-book)

Paperback, 2018, 402 pp, English

P $24.95 | O $199.95 | E $21.95

Russians on Trump Press Coverage and Commentary

Do you think Trump's victory is a miracle? No, it's history taking a deep breath!

— Alexander Prokhanov, Editor, Zavtra newspaper

No relationship has been reported on or analyzed as much as the one between the American 45th president and the US's former cold war rival. Now Russians on Trump gives you the perspective of the Russians themselves.

Ranging from the academic to the comic, the stories in Russians on Trump dig deep into what the ascendancy and presidency of Donald Trump have meant to Russian writers, journalists and commentators.

Russians on Trump sets out to show a view of Donald Trump that has gotten very little exposure in the American media but is critically important: the perspective of Russia. News, analysis and commentary about Trump, drawn directly from the Russian press—before 2016, during the election campaign, and after his surprise win—fill crucial gaps in the knowledge of what the Trump-Russia relationship means to both sides.

The book traces the relationship of Trump and Russia from 1997 to the present day. It looks at the personal image that Trump projects in Russia, the inferences that Russian analysts make from his statements, and the unforeseen reverberations of his policies. Fascinating, enlightening and entertaining, this collection will interest both serious scholars and anyone with an interest in digging deeper into the Trump presidency.

“If you want to know what the Russians think of Donald Trump, there’s no better way than reading what they say about him in their press—and there’s no better and more comprehensive survey of that than this book.”

— Prof. Mark Galeotti, Senior Researcher, Institute of International Relations, Prague

“Well-organized and edited, this intriguing volume should serve as an excellent resource to those thoroughly interested in Trump’s position on the world stage.”

—Kirkus Reviews

“Anyone wanting to know more about U.S. Russian relations should read this book.”

— Walter Moss, professor emeritus of history at Eastern Michigan University and author of A History of Russia, Vol. I and Vol. II

By Vagit Alekperov

ISBN 978-1879944-07-7 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-48-0 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-11-4 (e-book)

Hardcover, 2011, 558 pp, English

P $75.00 | O $375.00 | E $49.95

Oil of Russia

Past, Present & Future

A detailed history of the Russian oil industry
by LUKOIL president Vagit Alekperov

Oil of Russia: Past, Present and Future presents a detailed history of the oil industry in Russia by one of its leading figures – LUKOIL Oil Company president Vagit Alekperov. Divided into three chapters, the book focuses on the formation and development of Russia's oil industry from ancient times until the end of 1917; the various developmental stages of the Soviet oil industry during the period of 1918-1991; and the transition from the authoritarian administrative system of economic management of the Soviet era to the free market system.

Oil of Russia: Past, Present and Future includes six full-color photo inserts, an overview of major Russian oil companies, profiles of key historical and contemporary figures, a selected bibliography, a full listing of Vagit Alekperov's previous works, and an index.

ISBN 1-87994436-7

Hardcover, 1995

452 pages, in Russian

$59.95

Архив внешней политики Россииской Империи

Путеводитель'

Guidebook to the archives of tsarist Russia's Ministry of Foreign Affairs

A unique, never before available guidebook opens the files on the documents, letters and communiqués driving Russia's foreign policy from the late 16th century through 1917. The Архив внешней политики Россииской Империи holds over 500,000 documents in about 400 record groups, primarily encompassing the years 1720 to 1917, with some documents dating from 1537. This guidebook was the first ever to be published for an archive totally devoted to the conduct of Russian foreign policy, whether from the Imperial or Soviet periods.

ISBN 978-1879944-93-0 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-92-3 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-69-5 (e-book)

Paperback, 2017, 354 pp, English

P $39.95 | O $199.95 | E $29.95

War in Syria Russian Press Coverage, 2015-2017

War in Syria: Russian Press Coverage, 2015-2017 fills a unique niche in political and military studies by presenting key events in the Syrian civil war—the deadliest conflict of the 21st century—from a perspective that differs markedly from Western reportage.

Coverage starts with Russian President Vladimir Putin's September 2015 decision to send military forces into Syria. The book closes on a hopeful note, just after the signing of the May 2017 Astana agreement to establish "safe zones" in the war-torn country.

Articles are authored by a broad range of Russian commentators, including diplomats, military experts, political analysts and journalists. Publishing sources are all based in Russia, but they run the gamut from state-sponsored newspapers to independent online journals. Carefully translated and annotated, War in Syria contains material never before published in book form in English. This collection is a must-read for students, professors, researchers, journalists and anyone else wanting to learn more about Russia's role in the Middle East in particular, and in geopolitical conflicts and diplomacy in general.

Contents

1. Russia's Decision to Intervene in Syria: Motivations, Tactics and Strategy
2. Damaged Relations With Turkey
3. Russian, Western Goals Clash in Syria
4. Partnership Between Russia and the West
5. Syrian Conflict in the Global Security Context
6. Moscow, Washington Broker First Syrian Ceasefire
7. Russia Pulls Its Troops Out of Syria
8. Russia, US Move Closer to a Deal as Focus Shifts to Aleppo
9. Russian-Iranian Cooperation
10. Russia, Turkey Restore Relations
11. Turkey Launches Operation Euphrates Shield
12. Syria Ceasefire Brokered – and Broken
13. Russia, Turkey and Iran Launch the Astana Process
14. Trump Election Touches Off Changes in Anti-ISIS Coalition
15. US Responds Militarily to WMD Attack in Syria
16. Astana Process Resumes With 'Safe Zones' Agreement

Countdown to War in Georgia
 Russia's Foreign Policy and Media Coverage of the Conflict in South Ossetia and Abkhazia
The events leading up to the 2008 war as reported by the Russian media

The August 2008 events in South Ossetia ushered in a new low in Russian-American relations and forced the rest of the world to reevaluate how they view Russia and their policies toward it. While world opinion, especially in the West, tended to take a negative view of Russia's actions, throughout Russia there has been almost universal, even emotional support of the steps taken by the Russian government.

Countdown to War in Georgia provides in-depth coverage of Russian perspectives on this long-developing crisis. Covering the period from 1989 to late August 2008, the book includes articles from some of the most widely read newspapers and foreign policy and security publications in the Russian Federation today.

The first section of the book includes hundreds of Russian newspaper articles originally translated into English and published in The Current Digest of the (Post-) Soviet Press. The second section includes articles on foreign policy, security issues and peacekeeping operations originally translated into English and published in the journals International Affairs and Military Thought. All of these articles have been carefully translated from the original Russian and presented without commentary in order to render an accurate picture of Russian views and policy regarding the Caucasus.

This is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in gaining a perspective on these events other than those seen in the Western media, and is also an important tool for understanding Russia's overall policy toward Georgia and the West.

ISBN 978-1879944-04-6 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-49-7 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-15-2 (EPUB)

ISBN 978-1879944-05-3 (MOBI)

Hardcover, 2008, 579 pp, English

P $44.95 | O $249.95 | E $19.00

Edited by Ruslan Pukhov &

Christopher Marsh

ISBN 978-1879944-99-2 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-98-5 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-90-9 (e-book)

Paperback, 2017, 263 pp, English

P $39.95 | O $199.95 | E $39.95

Elite Warriors Special Operations Forces From Around the World

Elite Warriors: Special Operations Forces From Around the World is the latest book from the Centre for Analysis of Strategies and Technologies (CAST), a Moscow-based think tank focused on military and security issues. Presenting a collection of essays by leading military and security analysts, Elite Warriors offers a detailed assessment of the organization and capabilities of a selection of special operations forces from around the world. Featuring countries such as China, Iran, Israel, Jordan, Poland, Russia, Turkey, and Ukraine, Elite Warriors gives a comprehensive breakdown of the current composition, roles and chain of command of the various types of elite forces within each country. Also included are details concerning personnel recruitment and training, weapons and gear, brief histories and select combat records. Elite Warriors is an ideal reference for anyone interested in the unique role that these special forces play in their respective countries.

Full list of countries featured in Elite Warriors:

- Algeria
- China
- Colombia
- France
- Germany
- Iran
- Israel
- Italy
- Jordan
- Poland
- Russia
- Singapore
- Turkey
- Ukraine

“Elite Warriors represents one of CAST’s broadest analytical efforts to date and one of the first such studies dedicated to special operations forces.”

- Matthew Bodner, Defense News

“Elite Warriors: Special Operations Forces From Around the World is an exceptionally well-researched book and forms a valuable resource for scholars studying special operations forces—particularly those that are not of American or British origin. Each one of the chapters—which are essentially stand alone research papers—offer detailed analyses of various nations’ forces—often with details not found anywhere else. Scholars in Washington will find the sections on Russia, Ukraine, Iran and China to be particularly useful.”

- Dave Majumdar, The National Interest

By Vasily Kashin et al, 2nd Ed.

ISBN 978-1879944-65-7 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-86-2 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-85-5 (EPUB)

ISBN 978-1879944-64-0 (MOBI)

Paperback, 2015, 333 pp, English

P $39.95 | O $199.95 | E $39.95

By Mikhail Barabanov et al

ISBN 978-1879944-09-1 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-51-0 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-34-3 (EPUB)

ISBN 978-1879944-12-1 (MOBI)

Paperback, 2012, 176 pp, English

P $39.95 | O $199.95 | E $29.00

Brothers Armed Military Aspects of the Crisis in Ukraine

Brothers Armed, the latest publication from the Moscow-based Centre for Analysis of Strategies and Technologies, provides military context for and unprecedented detail about the strategic confrontation between the Russian Federation and Ukraine, bringing greater balance and detail, more candor, and increased objectivity to a subject fraught with confusion, misunderstanding, and historical animosities.

In this updated and expanded second edition, Brothers Armed builds on the critical analysis presented in the first, examining the military reform efforts of both Russia and Ukraine, the antecedents to Russian intervention in Crimea, the military and political mechanics of the intervention itself, and the nature of and grounds for the subsequent Russian annexation. New essays examine what has transpired in the region since the annexation of Crimea and assess the causes and possible consequences of the ongoing crisis in Ukraine.

Shooting Star China's Military Machine in the 21st Century

An objective study of the developments and progress made by China's defense industry over the last twenty years, including an in-depth analysis of China's arms imports and exports.

Written by Moscow's prestigious Centre for Analysis of Strategies and Technologies, this book presents a highly detailed account of the major corporations that make up the current structure of China's defense industry and a thorough survey of China's activities on the international arms market.

Shooting Star outlines China's key defense corporations in all defense industry segments, the various government agencies that oversee these state-owned corporations and the activities of each corporation and their various subsidiaries. The book examines China's arms imports and military and technical cooperation with various exporters, before focusing on Chinese arms exports, specifically exports during the period from 1992-2010, and closes with an exhaustive list of the weapons categories China offers to its foreign customers.

By Aleksandr A. Svechin

ISBN 978-1879944-33-6 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-71-8 (online)

ISBN 978-1879944-17-6 (EPUB)

ISBN 978-1879944-13-8 (MOBI)

Paperback, 1992, 374 pp, English

P $39.95 | O $199.95 | E $39.95

Strategy

A seminal work by the renowned Russian military strategist

Aleksandr A. Svechin (1878-1938), Russia's most intellectually honest and provocative military theorist, has been heralded as the "Soviet Clausewitz." This book, strongly influenced by the writings and analyses of the contemporary and classic European figures of Svechin's day, represents his concept of the best approach to national security for the Soviet state.

East View presents the English translation of the second edition, a foreword, three book reviews of Svechin's original text from the Red Army's Voyna i revoliutsiia [War and Revolution], and a bibliography of Svechin's published works. It is supplemented by several analytical essays written by:

- Dr. Andrei A. Kokoshin of the Institute of the USA and Canada and the person singularly most responsible for Svechin's renaissance;
- General-Major (ret.) Valentin V. Larionov, a renowned figure for his central role in the Soviet classic Military Strategy, edited by Sokolovskii;
- Army General Vladimir N. Lobov, the former Soviet General Staff chief and a respected military intellectual in the Soviet High Command;
- Dr. Jacob W. Kipp, the foremost American authority on the historical development of Russian and Soviet military thinking.

This edition of Strategy belongs in the collections of every college and military library, international relations scholar, and specialist of Soviet and Russian history.

Edited by L.V. Dvoinykh, T.F. Kariaeva and M.V. Stegantsev, in Russian

Vol. 1: ISBN 1-87994402-2

Hardcover, 1991, 421 pages, $59.95

Vol. 2: ISBN 1-87994403-0

Hardcover, 1993, 531 pages, $59.95

Tsentralnyi gosudarstvennyi arkhiv Sovetskoi Armii Putevoditel' v dvukh tomakh. Tom. 1/ Tom. 2

A two-volume archival guide to the Soviet Army Archive

The Central State Archive of the Soviet Army (now the Russian State Military Archive) contains some of the most important and sensitive documents relating to the early history of the Soviet state with some 2,000,000 documents in almost 33,000 record groups documenting the years 1917-1941 for the Soviet military.

Volume 1 contains detailed references to records on key events of the later interwar period, records from the central Soviet military organs of the entire period, and much more. Volume 2 begins with large sections devoted to the bulk of the Archive's holdings: documents on the directorates and staffs of rifle and cavalry formations and units. Subsequent sections detail the separate and independent units of the Red Army, and the Archive's holdings on Red Army special forces, among others. This volume also includes an index of military divisions, a bibliography of all works published on the basis of the Archive's holdings, and a comprehensive subject index to the entire two-volume guidebook.

By Cevat Ülkekel

Edited by Brendan Whyte &

Christopher Pugsley

ISBN 978-1879944-95-4 (hardcover)

ISBN 978-1879944-97-8 (paperback)

2017, 110 pages, in English

Hardcover $99.95

Paperback $49.95

School of Surveying in 1953, and became a surveying engineer. In 1962, he graduated from the Faculty of Law at Ankara University. He was promoted to Brigadier-General in 1981 and to Major-General in 1986. He has published 16 books—three in Turkish and English; two in Turkish, English and French; and the remaining in Turkish. He has published more than 30 articles in a variety of journals, one of which was published abroad.

Translator Colonel Osman Alp, Ph.D. graduated from the Turkish Military Academy in 1985 and from the Higher Technical School of Surveying in 1987, where he received a BSc degree and graduated as a surveying engineer. He received his Master's and Ph.D. degrees in Geodesy from Istanbul Technical University in 1993 and 1998, respectively. He also earned a Master's degree in European Union Law from the Faculty of Law at Selçuk University in 2007.

Editor Brendan Whyte completed a doctorate in political geography at the University of Melbourne, and is currently Assistant Curator of Maps at the National Library of Australia, where he pursues research interests in transportation, cartographic and military history.

Editor Christopher Pugsley has authored/edited 19 books. A former Senior Lecturer in War Studies at the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst, he is an Adjunct Professor in the School of Humanities, University of Canterbury; a Distinguished Alumni of the University of Waikato and Fellow of the Royal Historical Society. He is a Vice President of the Western Front Association and was appointed an officer in the New Zealand Order of Merit in 2015.

Maps of the Battleground of Gallipoli (Gelibolu) and the Dardanelles A Turkish View

Maps of the Battleground of Gallipoli (Gelibolu) and the Dardanelles: A Turkish View provides a rich guide to the maps of the 1915 Gallipoli Campaign theater and its environs. This book traces the strategic importance and cartographic history of Gallipoli and the Dardanelles back to antiquity, before focusing on the maps made by both the Allies and Central Powers in preparation for, during, and after the Gallipoli Campaign. Includes numerous color illustrations and photos, as well as maps printed in color in their entirety, many of which may not have been seen previously by English-language readers.

This book is an updated edition of the Turkish book Altın Kapı Çanakkale Boğazı ve Çanakkale (Gelibolu) Savaş Alanının Haritaları (2015), authored by Major-General Cevat Ülkekel (ret.), former director of the General Command of Mapping, the national mapping agency of Turkey, and translated into English by the current director of the General Command of Mapping, Colonel Osman Alp, Ph.D.

About the Contributors

Author Major-General Cevat Ülkekel (ret.) graduated from the Turkish Military Academy in 1950, received a BSc Degree from the Higher Technical

ISBN 978-1879944-08-4

Hardcover with slipcase, 2011

31 x 42 cm

440 pages, in English

$195.00

ISBN 978-0974297-31-6 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-50-3 (online)

Hardcover, 2005

188 pages, in English

P $295.00 | O $195.00

The East View World Geographical Atlas

Fully updated contents, including the latest population data and the addition of the world's 195th country - South Sudan

The East View World Geographical Atlas features 176 maps (including insets), as well as:

- Detailed physical and political maps of Europe, Asia, Africa, North America, South America and Oceania, plus a world time zone map
- Satellite images of the world, oceans and each of the main regions
- Complete mapping coverage with accurate reliefs, political boundaries, urban hierarchy, and main transport networks
- Precise, exclusive designs and colors for physical features, including ranges of altitude and depth of seas and oceans
- Large-scale mapping of Europe – the most detailed coverage among similar atlases
- An expanded section on maps of the oceans
- Use of official local place names on large scale maps
- Detailed geographical glossary and index of names

Russian Military Mapping

A Guide to the Most Comprehensive Source of Global Geospatial Intelligence

Russian Military Mapping is the English-language translation of the current edition of a basic manual used in the Russian Armed Forces to introduce Russian officers to topographic and other special maps. This book is a major contribution to the literature of understanding and interpreting Russian (or Soviet) topographic maps.

This manual contains material systematized into the following major sections: general information on the Earth's atmosphere, weather and climate, winds, and concepts of time; basic data on topographic and special maps; description of terrain types and their tactical properties, and procedures for maintaining the commander's working maps.

The appendices contain several types of reference data, sample topographic and special maps, tables of symbols used for topographic maps, and some conventional designations and abbreviation used in combat documents.

TERRAIN ANALYSIS SERIES

East View's Terrain Analysis Series is based on detailed analytical reports found on the verso side of the 1:200,000 scale Soviet military-topographic map series. Expertly translated by East View, the series makes an abundance of detailed local geographic data accessible to a global audience.

Each title in the series is composed of individual reports analyzing the terrain and relevant geography of a specific portion of the country. The reports themselves are structured into six parts, describing populated places; local roads and transportation networks; topography and soils; hydrology; vegetation, and climate. Following this description for each area is a full-color small-scale overview topographic map of the region under examination, as well as a full-color soil map. Where possible, East View has updated or supplemented the reports with additional geospatial and population data from authoritative sources and locally sourced content.

Titles in the Terrain Analysis Series are available as hardcover books or e-books. East View also offers each title as a fully searchable XML database subscription with clearly marked geonames. Please inquire at online@eastview.com for trial requests and pricing information.

AVAILABLE TITLES

Terrain Analysis of Afghanistan

ISBN 978-0974297-30-9 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-47-3 (online)

128 map sheets, in English

Hardcover, 2003, 390 pages

P $195.00 | O $295.00

Terrain Analysis of Syria and Lebanon

ISBN 978-1879944-62-6 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-87-9 (online)

47 map sheets, in English

Hardcover, 2015, 160 pages

P $195.00 | O $295.00

Terrain Analysis of Ukraine

ISBN 978-1879944-23-7 (print)

ISBN 978-1879944-24-4 (online)

154 map sheets, in English

Hardcover, 2014, 476 pages

P $195.00 | O $295.00

ORDERING INFORMATION

Five convenient ways to order:

- Online at www.eastviewpress.com
- Call us at +1.952.252.1201
- Fax your order to +1.952.252.1202
- Email us at press@eastview.com
- Mail your order to our Minneapolis office

ISBN/ISSN	Title	Format	Price	Qty	Total Cost
MN residents add applicable sales tax
S$ per book S&H (US only), inquire for intl rates
TOTAL

Payment Method (please check one)

check purchase order no. _____ credit card (Visa/MC/AmEx)
card # _____ exp date _____ name _____ signature _____ institution _____ title _____ address _____
city/state/zip code _____
phone _____ email _____

Please note:

- All billing and payments in US dollars
- Prices are subject to change without notice
- Individual pricing is available for all of our journals - please inquire for details
- All orders from individuals must be pre-paid

10601 Wayzata Blvd | Minneapolis, MN 55305 USA
Phone: +1.952.252.1201 | Fax: +1.952.252.1202
www.eastviewpress.com | press@eastview.com