

Plant Direct*: Editor-in-Chief vacancy

Applications are invited for the post of Editor-in-Chief for *Plant Direct

- Plant Direct is an open access, sound science journal for the plant sciences and gives prompt and equal consideration to papers reporting work on a wide variety of subjects. It is a collaborative journal launched by the American Society of Plant Biologists (ASPB), the Society for Experimental Biology (SEB) and Wiley, and it supports the ASPB, SEB and the wider plant science communities.
- The current Editor-in-Chief, Dr. Ivan Baxter, is stepping down at the end of December 2021. Launched in 2017, Plant Direct has gone from strength to strength under Ivan's leadership, and ASPB, SEB, and Wiley seek to appoint a successor with the vision and drive to build on these strengths. This is a very exciting opportunity, and applications are invited from individuals working in any area of plant science.
- Please visit the Plant Direct website for more information about the experience and skill set required for the role along with an outline of the key responsibilities.
- The position is for an initial period of three years, commencing in full from 1st January 2022 (with the handover beginning in October 2021), and carries an annual honorarium.
- All candidates should submit their CV together with a covering letter outlining their suitability for the role and a vision statement for Plant Direct.
- For more information or for further discussion of the role, please do not hesitate to contact Rosie Trice (Wiley) at rtrice@wiley.com.

Applications should be submitted by email to Rosie Trice (rtrice@wiley.com). The closing date for applications is 15th August 2021 and interviews are expected to take place around mid-September 2021.
