★★★★★
5-STAR REVIEW
"This superb book should be part of every pediatric training program... It is concise, well written, and fills a void since there are no comparable books."
—Doody's Book Reviews™

Ensure your Neonatal Simulation trainings run with ease— with these helpful tools!

The Neonatal Simulation Card: Ground Rules for Running a Simulation is a handy tool for simulation instructors to use when establishing the ground rules at the start of a simulation training. Suggested instructor wording is provided for each ground rule, to make communicating scenario expectations simple, clear, concise, and consistent. This card is laminated for repeat use—it can take some wear and tear!

Ground rules guidance appears on both the front and back of the card, to provide maximum value and convenience to facilitators!

The Neonatal Simulation Card: Debriefing/Co-debriefing provides busy simulation instructors with convenient prompts to have on hand during debriefing after a simulation scenario. Specific strategies to facilitate delivery of debriefing are featured, as well as the advantages and challenges of co-debriefing, with suggested mitigation strategies to use in co-debriefing situations.

Instructors who are new to conducting simulation debriefings may find this cheat sheet especially helpful. This card is also laminated, so it can take some wear and tear!
