Mertz Taggart is an industry-leading healthcare services M&A firm.

ABOUT US

Mertz Taggart is an industry-leading healthcare services M&A firm. Our extensive industry knowledge is derived from our associations with influential figures in the field, our understanding of the acquisition strategies of buyers, and our practical experience in owning and operating a healthcare company.

With over 140 completed healthcare transactions since 2006, our track record translates into tangible value for our clients, whom we always put first.

Our goal is to maximize your company's value by weighing all factors impacting the sale, creating competition among the most qualified buyers, and driving the process from start to finish.

Our confidential, competitive process is designed with the following objectives:

- Put you in control
- Maintain confidentiality
- Maximize value
- Minimize surprises
